

I do not wish uninvited guests to barge their way into my home.
Neither do I wish to be interuppted by unwanted phone calls. Why should telemarketers have more rights than a private citizen?